

Five architectures, three window-set constructions, leave-one-subject-out bars follow the legend order left to right within every group; error bars are the standard deviation across the five seed-level means

